As a continuation of the special relationship between CandyKing Theatre and the Greenwich Playhouse, CandyKing Theatre are proud to present Oscar Wilde's AN IDEAL HUSBAND in a four week run.

AN IDEAL HUSBAND is Wilde's near to the knuckle masterpiece, a dazzling comedy about political corruption and blackmail, set in London high society. Awash with Wilde's trademark wit, and his greatest dramatic plot, acerbic characters and brilliant fops, it is one of his finest theatrical pieces.

Press Quotes for CandyKing's most recent production at the Greenwich Playhouse - A DOLL'S HOUSE:

"A compelling piece of theatre" - www.greenwich.co.uk

"This is the second production I have seen from Candyking Theatre and like its predecessor...it was well polished, well acted and well directed...CandyKing do revivals well"- Theatre World

"A delight to watch" - extra extra

"This is a show and a moral lesson that need to be told, and CandyKing Theatre do it brilliantly." - Docklands News

"Candy King Theatre's strong production showcases excellent performances from Kate Dion-Richard as Nora and Brett Harris as Torvald. A new translation by Ida Forde makes the script feel fresh and modern, while Maria Chiorando's direction allows the actors room to demonstrate some electric moments of drama." - Barking and Dagenham Post

"makes you realize the importance of this piece and why it's necessary to produce it again and again" - extra extra
